

POSTMASTER HELD FOR A SHORTAGE

Hicksville (L. I.) Official Promptly Made Good, but It Was Too Late to Avoid His Arrest for Embezzlement.

August Hauser, postmaster of Hicksville, L. I., was arrested to-day on a charge of misappropriating receipts for money orders to the amount of $344.67. Before United States Commissioner Morie he waived examination and was held in $1,000 bail for the Grand Jury.

Post-Office Inspector Charles E. Crowell, while investigating the Hicksville office, discovered the shortage. Hauser, who is a man of some means, made good the shortage at once, but it was too late to avoid arrest. He is the last postmaster appointed by President McKinley, having received his appointment a few days after the former President was shot. Hauser is a married man and has several children.

AN ARMY SERGEANT AS CO-RESPONDENT

Divorce Suit Against Mrs. William Elliott Causes Something of a Sensation Among Residents of Whitestone, L. I.

Residents of Whitestone, L. I., are discussing with considerable interest the somewhat sensational divorce suit which has been instituted by William Elliott, a librarian, against his wife, Florence. The co-respondent is said to be a sergeant stationed at Willet's Point, who is familiarly known as "Happy Jack."

Mrs. Elliott is a blonde, young and decidedly handsome. She was organist in Grace Church at Whitestone and taught Sunday-school in the church also up to about three weeks ago.

The Elliotts parted about a year ago. Since then the wife resided in their home at Whitestone. About a week ago she went away, saying she was going back to her mother, who lives in Syracuse. Elliott then took the furniture away from the house and advertised that he would not be responsible for his wife's bills in the future.

One of the witnesses subpoenaed for the trial is a grocer's boy at Whitestone. Elliott has in his possession some letters written to his wife by the grocer's boy which are said to be decidedly spicy. The case will come up for trial in April.

ELEVATOR BOY A BURGLAR.

Harry Miner Confesses to Robberies in Apartment House.

Harry Miner, a negro elevator boy at the apartment house at No. 201 West One Hundred and Twelfth street, was arrested this afternoon by Detectives Fitzsimmons and Zimmerman, of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, charged with burglary.

After his arrest and arraignment in court, Miner confessed to the robberies and said that he had also robbed other apartment houses where he had worked. He was remanded to the station-house until to-morrow.

Among the complainants who have already appeared is Mrs. Charles Marshall, who said diamond rings, diamonds and a gold watch were stolen. Mrs. Van Anham, who also lives in the house, had her apartment robbed on Sunday, she said, of $200 in jewelry and $10 in cash.

GLORIES OF THE SPRING FASHIONS IN FULL ARRAY

Flare Display in the Millinery and Other Departments of Bloomingdale's Big Store.

Bloomingdale's big store, corner of Fifty-ninth street and Third avenue, is in holiday array this week in honor of their great spring opening, which was inaugurated yesterday and continues to-day and to-morrow.

The millinery department is especially festive. Festoons of tiny-leaved vines interspersed with diminutive pink roses, hang from the ceiling. One corner is entirely violet in tone, the flowers being woven in among the vines, forming an admirable setting for the dainty confections of Parisian make exhibited in the cases.

In general it may be said that hats are larger and the crowns higher than they have been for several seasons. The torpedoes shape leads, perhaps, in popularity. It is much like the boat-shaped toque of last summer, only somewhat larger. The Continental is another favorite shape. A pretty model is of yellow Tuscan braid, with a border around the edge of the brim of tiny pink roses. A pink feather and more roses on the crown complete the trimming.

In the suit department many beautiful novelties are exhibited. All the skirts are made full and pleated, some showing a full skirt and a bow called the "Butterfly Skirt." Shoulder collars at lace in cape effects are much worn. No lace stocks. The stole stock is still worn and the narrow turn-over embroidered bands for neck and sleeves are too used to go out of fashion for a long time. Rushings are much worn, also lingerie blouses of machine and ribbon. A new modishness has appeared in the shape of the popular fur scarfs worn last about the neck this winter.

REARRESTED AFTER BEING RELEASED

Henry Gottlieb Is Discharged from Custody After Trial on Forgery Charge, but Is at Once Accused of Larceny.

Henry Gottlieb, a lawyer, was tried on a charge of forgery in the second degree before Judge Foster in Part I. of the Court of General Sessions, to-day and discharged by order of the presiding Judge. The District Attorney's assistant, Mr. Lord, had not made out a case.

Gottlieb and his attorney, Fred House, expected that he would be liberated following the dismissal of the complaint against him, but Mr. Lord asked that he be "remanded until to-morrow, saying that he is accused of grand larceny. There is no indictment against the man for grand larceny, and Mr. House protested that as the jury had acquitted his client by direction of the Court he was free to walk out.

Mr. Lord then said that there is another indictment against Gottlieb, and on this representation the Judge remanded him. This other indictment, Mr. Lord says, will not prove effective, and Gottlieb will be discharged again, but why he wanted to hold the man for a trial that must result in his acquittal was not explained.

Gottlieb created a scene in the Tombs when he was taken back after being remanded. He refused to enter his cell and was put in force.

It is charged against him that he forged the signature of a tax receiver to a $800 tax bill. He was indicted last October, was arrested in Chicago in November and brought back to New York through extradition proceedings.

BOY BANDIT TELLS OF OTHER CRIMES

Gustave Marx, One of the Chicago Gang, Declares He Killed Two Men in Buffalo, but Police Doubt Story.

CHICAGO, March 15.—Gustave Marx, the far barn bandit, confessed to two more crimes to-day.

"Two years ago last July," said Marx, "I killed two men in a saloon at Buffalo, N. Y. Another man and I held up the place and killed the bartender and a man who tried to get out of a window. The name of the owner of the saloon was either Patrick or Fitzpatrick."

BUFFALO, March 15.—Austin Crowe, an east-side saloon-keeper, was shot and killed on June 28, 1902. The details of the crime are similar to those for which Marx has been sentenced to death, the murder following a hold-up. Three men giving the names of Charles Green, John Doyle, alias Fred Mercer, and John Richards, were arrested for the crime, but they were acquitted.

"Sup," Bull said this afternoon, "I think Marx is lying. He has read about these crimes in the papers and is making up the story."

ACADEMY PAYS DIVIDEND.

Directors of the Brooklyn Academy of Music, which was destroyed recently by fire, have declared a dividend of 187 per cent., being $5.50 a share. The directors will hold a special meeting April 4 to vote upon the proposition to dissolve the corporation.

OXYGEN EXPLODES AND KILLS A MAN

Tank Containing 150 Gallons Blows Up in West Eighty-ninth Street and the Factory Is Wrecked.

An explosion of a tank of oxygen injured one man and wrecked things generally in the Eagle Oxygen Company's works, No. 121 West Eighty-ninth street, this afternoon. Several tanks charged with about 150 gallons of oxygen were lying ready for shipment on the ground floor.

One of the employees, Edward Corliss, about twenty-three years old, had just finished moving them to their position when one of them exploded. The man was struck by one of the shattered fragments of the tank and was hurled across the floor for twenty feet. The explosion shook the building and tore apart a heavy partition.

An ambulance surgeon from Roosevelt Hospital found that both of Corliss's legs had been blown off. The man died a few minutes later.

The explosion was the result of surcharging the tank. The exploded tank was similar to those distributed by the Eagle Company to its consumers.

THREE KILLED IN EXPLOSION.

One of the Victims of Chicago Crash Died Saving Girls.

CHICAGO, March 15.—Three persons were killed and eight injured to-day in an explosion that wrecked the plant of the Chicago Toy Novelty Company. The explosion was caused by the ignition of 100 gross of toy pistol caps stored in the building.

One of the dead is Henry Jordan, a foreman, who perished in the burning ruins after helping a score of girl employees to escape.

It's easy to get a cold and just as easy to get Father John's

Medicine and cure it.

If Father John's Medicine don't cure your cold your money will be refunded.

What more could we do? In use 50 years. Contains no morphine or poisonous drugs, and is not a patent medicine.

Rinsing is about the hardest work of all the washing when you use

MILLER'S SOAP

Made with Naptha.

Use Miller's Soap this way: Wet the pieces and carefully rub the soap on them. Then roll them up and soak in cold, or slightly warm water (use hot water, if it's your way), for half an hour, or so. A little rubbing on the board, or a little work on the washing machine, will then take out all the dirt. Miller's Soap dissolves the dirt—loosens it from the fabric during the half hour you wait. Naptha is the thing that makes the work easy—takes the place of rubbing.

For everything but clothes, use Miller's Powerine with Ammonia, the quick cleaner.

Insist on Miller's Soap and Miller's Powerine. Your grocer can get them—if he is slow about it, write to The Pennsylvania Soap Co., Hudson and Bank Streets, New York, and you will get what you want.

Made by THE PENNSYLVANIA SOAP CO. Factories: LANCASTER, PA., and BUFFALO.

BORAXOLOGY

The Boraxologist is not a complexion specialist, but a soap and water specialist. A good complexion depends more upon the proper washing of the face than anything else. If you could examine your skin under a magnifying glass after you've washed it clean—as you suppose—you'd be startled to see the dirt left in the pores, and likely some of the very soap you washed with. In other words, it's impossible to wash the face properly in hard water. If you'll wash your face every night in warm Borax water and every morning in cold Borax water, you'll soon notice the difference in the softness and clearness of your skin and the pinkness of your complexion. Be sure you get pure Borax. Ask for
